COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND HEALTH PROFESSIONS
Standards of Excellence for Promotion and Tenure: Teaching

Excellence in teaching embodies the use of best practices to improve student learning in the university and applied field settings. Within the learning community in the College of Education and Health Professions, faculty employ best practices in the areas of their professional and academic disciplines. The ideas and activities that constitute best practices include the use of a variety of tools and strategies to address the needs of diverse learners and the integration of technology to enhance teaching and learning. Faculty model best practices for their students who then apply similar ideas and activities in relevant professional settings. Faculty members collaborate within communities of learning as they apply best practices. They continually seek feedback from peers, mentors, and students and reflect upon the efficacy of their practice. The result of these efforts by faculty is accomplished teaching and improved learning for all students.

Standards of Excellence: Scholarship

Revised and approved 3-15-12

(The following represent the minimum standards for promotion and tenure.)

Scholarship and Professional Development	Scholarship is systematized knowledge that is accurate, authoritative, and thorough. Scholarship combines theoretical knowledge with practical applications. Scholars operate within communities of learning as peers, collaborators, mentors, and leaders who construct, critically examine, and reflect upon knowledge. Scholars seek out and explore multiple viewpoints, embracing diversity as it enriches their intellectual lives. Scholars actively engage in a life-long learning process, continually acquiring, integrating, refining, and applying knowledge to achieve excellence in teaching and to improve student learning. For tenure, the faculty member must have a minimum of one scholarly publication and exceed expectations on annual departmental evaluations of scholarship for at least two years.
